Kutztown, PA 19530

The Office of Adult Formation for the Diocese of Allentown invites you to join us for one or all of our seminars which will delve into Pope Saint John Paul II's groundbreaking teaching known as the Theology of the Body! These seminars are for anyone recognizing the need for a restored relationship with God, others, and the created world and is eligible for continuing education credits.

Saturday, October 21, 2017

PRESENTER: William Hamant, Ph.D.

This session will discuss God's original plan for us and the gifts He bestowed on us before the Fall of our first parents in Eden. Our bodies are more than just vehicles for our souls. They express something deep in our human experience that connects us to God, each other and the world that distinguishes us from angels and animals.

Saturday, November 11, 2017

PRESENTER: Andrew Whitmore

This session will discuss the fall in Eden and how it affects our relationship with God, each other and the world around us. Explore how Jesus redeems our broken hearts and offers us a path to renewed relationships!

Saturday, February 3, 2018

PRESENTER: William Hamant, Ph.D.

This session will discuss the different vocations of love that we are all called to and will show how each points to our ultimate end in God's loving embrace.

COST: $20.00 per session or $50 for all three sessions!
