

Lord Jesus Christ, my King and my Redeemer,
as You hung upon the Cross the Good Thief, Dismas, called out to You. He saw Your innocence and goodness, even in his moment of agony. Realizing his sinfulness and Your goodness, he called out to You and You heard his prayers.

Jesus, as I enter into this Lenten season, grant me, I humbly implore You, the grace that You gave to St. Dismas on the Cross. Grant me an awareness of my sinfulness so that I might realize my need for You and call out to You. As I endure my crosses this Lent may I suffer them with humility and patience and most importantly unite them to Your Cross, my Beloved Redeemer.

Lord Jesus, following the example of the Good Thief, I surrender myself to You begging You to remember me and look upon me with mercy.

Going forth today I remain hopeful that one day I may hear those words of comfort that you offered to St. Dismas, "This day you will be with Me in paradise."

Amen.

Prayer written by Seminarian Keaton Eidle

Lent 2023

PRAY. FAST. GIVE.

"Get Away, Satan!"

First Week of Lent

Saturday, February 25

Pray the prayer reflection above about Saint Dismas.

Sunday, February 26

Pray for the RCIA candidates today that their conversion brings them joy.

Monday, February 27

Skip the coffee purchase today and add that money to your rice bowl.

Tuesday, February 28

Pray the "Our Father" for your loved ones so that their Lenten journey may be blessed.

Wednesday, March 1

Light a candle today in gratitude for the changing seasons and for God's provisions.

Thursday, March 2

Ask the Lord to guide your steps today and ask Him for what you need.

Friday, March 3

Abstain from gossip or sharing uncharitable words about someone else.

Our Mission: "A Roman Catholic family of faith, centered in the Holy Eucharist, faithful to the Church's teachings, bringing the Light of Christ to each other and to our community."